

Equal masses: width matters at finite degree

Original v1 sequence: three admissible points

28 specified degree/width combinations; only $\varepsilon \leq 1/16$ shown. These sampled curves are not optimized degree envelopes.
 The v1 sequence first meets $\varepsilon \leq 1/16$ at $n = 1938$ ($r = 7752$). Smaller-width controls are distinct generator families.