

A limitation of the comparison method

Absolute costs vanish in these instances

Three states at 0, 1/2, 1; weights $\propto (1, \eta, \eta^2)$, $\eta = 10^{-3}/m^4$. Curvature divided by $m^4 + m^2$.
 The comparison-product curve is a lower bound from two partitions, not a hierarchy-price lower bound.